

Nielsen Library
Thesis Binding Agreement

Students completing a Master's Thesis are expected to provide a minimum of two printed and signed copies of their thesis to the library. One copy will be retained for the library, and one copy will be sent to the student. There is no charge for this service. If additional bound copies are requested these will be paid for by the student or department requesting it.

In addition to a paper copy, the Nielsen Library will make one electronic copy available online. Full copyright remains with the author of the thesis or dissertation as granted under United States Copyright Law. Students may delay electronic publication for the period of one year by filling out the Electronic Theses Withholding form, found at <https://www.adams.edu/library/about/thesis.php>. Students may also opt out by not signing the bottom of this form.

Electronic Copy Agreement

I grant, in perpetuity specific and limited archive and distribution rights to Adams State University. I authorize Adams State University to reproduce, distribute, and display my master's thesis or Ph.D. dissertation in any format known or later developed for preservation and access for nonprofit, educational purposes.

I represent and warrant to Adams State University that the Work is my original work and does not, to the best of my knowledge, infringe or violate any rights of others nor does it violate any applicable laws. I also represent and warrant that any third-party owned content is clearly identified and acknowledged within the work.

I understand that Adams State University will observe any publication restrictions I have placed on my work. I further understand that this agreement does not represent a transfer of copyright to Adams State University.
